

WHO Recognition for Healthy Cities 2014

Healthy Cities Best Practices 2014

> Protecting, promoting and supporting healthy diets: Salt reduction

Best Practice: Changshu, People's Republic of China; Gangdong-gu, Seoul, Republic of Korea

> Protecting, promoting and supporting healthy diets: Restricting marketing of unhealthy food and beverages to children

Best Practice: Yongin, Republic of Korea

> Protecting, promoting and supporting breastfeeding

Best Practice: Kunshan, People's Republic of China

> Measuring the impact of city-level tobacco control policies

Best Practice: Beijing, People's Republic of China; Qingdao, People's Republic of China; Shenzhen, People's Republic of China

> Disability-inclusive cities

Best practice: Seongdong-gu, Seoul, Republic of Korea

> Fostering age-friendly cities

Best Practice: Dangjin, Republic of Korea

> Creating gender-responsive cities

Best Practice: Wonju, Republic of Korea

> Water safety planning

Best Practice: Parañaque City, Philippines

> Safe cities: Prevention of violence and injuries

Best Practice: Songpa-gu, Seoul, Republic of Korea

> Addressing the social determinants of health through a Health in All Policies approach

Best Practice: Logan City, Australia

Special Recognition, 2014

Logan City, Australia

AFHC Awards for Healthy Cities 2014

1. AFHC Award for Creative Developments in Healthy Cities

Category (1): Evaluation

Taoyuan Healthy City Promotion Association

Category (2): Healthy Settings and Communicable Diseases Control

(none)

Category (3): Health Security and Non-communicable Diseases Control

Obu City; Changwon City; Yuseong-gu, Daejeon Metropolitan City; Taoyuan Healthy City Promotion Association

Category (4): Health Equity

Hsinchu City Healthy City Promotion Association; Taoyuan Healthy City Promotion Association

Category (5): Ubiquitous City

Songpa-gu, Seoul

Category (6): Good Health Systems

Kaohsiung Healthy Harbor City Association; Tainan Healthy City Association

Category (7): Disaster Preparedness, response and recovery

Owariasahi City; Marikina City; Taoyuan Healthy City Promotion Association

Category (8): Healthy Urban Planning

(none)

2. AFHC Award for Progress of Healthy Cities

Award for Healthy City with Good Infrastructure

Yamato City

Award for Healthy City with Good Dynamic

Busanjin-gu, Busan Metropolitan City; Changwon City; Siheung City; Yuseong-gu, Daejeon Metropolitan City

Award for Healthy City with Comprehensive Development

Owariasahi City

3. AFHC Award for Pioneers of Healthy Cities

Susana Judy Magtubo

Rhee Boo Ouk

Albert LEE