

All older persons can receive the free physical examination by the local government

Morning exercise

•Playing chess

The construction of the city addresses fully the needs of older persons.
A corner of Liangshan pr.

•The culture activity for the older persons

The graceful rest home

The infrastructures for the elderly have been distributed in all towns and villages

The medical staffs are examining the older persons in the community

The older female like the traditional healthy sport

The older persons are receiving the free physical examination

The older persons like the traditional healthy sport

The older persons take part in the climbing of mountains for sport

•The staffs accompany the older persons in the outdoors